PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 110th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 153

WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2007

No. 29

Senate

The Senate met at 10 a.m. and was called to order by the Honorable BARACK OBAMA, a Senator from the State of Illinois.

PRAYER

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Today's prayer will be offered by the Reverend Dr. J. Layton Mauze, III, of Gastonia, NC.

The guest Chaplain offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Gracious God, Creator of life and the sustainer of all things, including political things, we bow before You this day in humility and with thankful hearts to acknowledge that our lives are a gift of Your grace, renewed every morning and nurtured every day in Your tender care.

We begin this time together by acknowledging our faith in You and our dependence upon You. We begin by saying that our religious faith and commitment do influence our opinions and convictions, our daily and political life.

So help us never to let our politics or our religion become dirty by default, but help us to keep the moral integrally related to the political, and give us the wisdom and courage to stand for the hard right against the easy wrong.

Strengthen and encourage each of these Senators today, we pray, and guide and protect our beloved Nation, particularly in these ethically difficult times. May justice prevail and leadership based on integrity be the dominant note.

Keep us all faithful to the opportunities and challenges this day will bring, and make us a blessing to all those our lives will touch.

To that end, grant us that illumination without which we walk in darkness, that inspiration without which we spend our days in mediocrity, and that intelligence without which we stumble in folly.

This, our prayer, we offer to You in faith, and with thanksgiving in the strong Name of our God. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The Honorable BARACK OBAMA led the Pledge of Allegiance, as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

SCHEDULE

Mr. REID. Mr. President, this morning there will be a brief period of morning business until 10:20, and then we will proceed to executive session to consider the nomination of Randy Smith, to be a U.S. Circuit Court Judge, and Marcia Morales Howard, to be a U.S. District Judge. Debate on these nominations is limited to a total of 10 minutes equally divided and controlled between the chairman and ranking member of the Judiciary Committee. At 10:30, the Senate will proceed to vote on confirmation of these two nominations.

I would like to indicate to Members that a third rollcall vote is likely shortly after these votes on the adjournment of the Senate, so Members should plan on three votes instead of two.

Following these votes there will be morning business, with the first hour controlled by Senator LEAHY and then the Republican leader or his designee will control an hour.

Mr. President, in a short time, we will approve the first circuit court judge of this Congress. The distinguished Republican leader and I have had conversations about having as little acrimony—in fact, hopefully none—on circuit court judges. The last Congress will be noted for a number of things and one will be the contentiousness of the circuit court judges that came before the Senate. I have made a commitment to my friend from Kentucky that we will move forward on these. We have had conversations with the President, and he is going to do his best to send us circuit court judges that are not people who cause a lot of heartburn on this side, and we think that is totally possible and in keeping with the standards President Bush wants for these circuit court judges. So this is a time when we are going to try to work together to move forward.

Randy Smith is the first, and I say to everyone, it wasn't easy to get him here. He has been nominated for one position and then another position. There was a little holdup to begin with, but we are beginning to work through this, as we wish to do. We have members of the Judiciary Committee who
